Company overview

Tallowick at a glance

A top-3 branded food and household-care manufacturer in Country B: LCB 10,612m of net sales in FY2025, 13.7% EBITDA margin, net cash

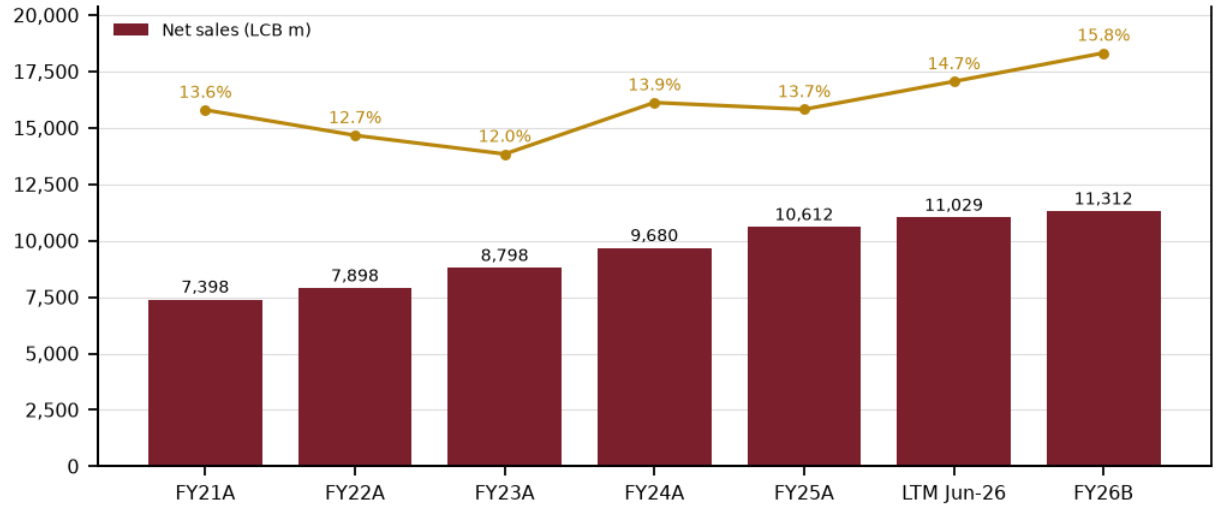

Company overview

- Founded in 2004 by the late Hassan Tallowick as a single dairy-style dessert line, we are today one of the three largest branded packaged-food and household-care companies in Country B. We manufacture, market and distribute our products ourselves, from three plants located in industrial zones around the capital.
- Our portfolio is built on the Tallowick master brand and three category brands: Dunya (dairy-style desserts and spreads), Zeyla (biscuits and snacks) and Beyta (household care). Dunya holds an estimated 35.2% volume share of its category, Zeyla 18.6% and Beyta 12.4%.
- In FY2025 we sold 486.4 million units and generated LCB 10,611.7m of net sales (USD 132.6m), LCB 1,449.4m of EBITDA (USD 18.1m) and a net result of LCB 855.3m. Since 2019 we have been majority-owned by Kessport Frontier Fund II, which bought out our first institutional investor.
- We operate 11 production lines across our three plants, employ c. 2,400 people and reach an estimated 84,000 points of sale through 46 exclusive distributors, 310 wholesalers and a direct key-account team serving the five national modern-trade chains.

Evolution of company performance FY2021–FY2026B

Headwinds FY2021–FY2023

A prolonged disruption of the traditional trade in FY2021, when distributor credit tightened; the loss of our founder-CEO in 2021; a 38% rise in vegetable fat, milk powder and packaging film costs between 2021 and 2023; and a 14% weakening of the LCB against the US dollar, which we could only partly pass through. Gross margin fell from 40.1% in FY2019 to 35.5% in FY2023.

Recovery drivers FY2024–FY2026B

Normalisation of raw-material prices; the shift of the mix from value packs towards Dunya premium formats and Zeyla family packs; and the push-and-pull commercial programme launched in 2024. EBITDA margin has recovered to 13.7% in FY2025 and is budgeted at 15.8% in FY2026.

Brand portfolio

Three category brands under one master brand, covering premium, mainstream and value tiers in each category

Master brand and category brands

Tallowick (master brand)	Dunya
Zeyla	Beyta
Dunya Gold (premium sub-line)	Zeyla Family (large formats)

- Dunya is our flagship: chilled-style desserts, spreads and drinks with an ambient shelf life, sold in single-serve and family formats. The Dunya Gold sub-line was launched in Q4 2025 to occupy the mid-premium price point between our mainstream range and imported brands.
- Zeyla covers biscuits, wafers and savoury snacks and is the fastest-growing brand in the portfolio, driven by the family-pack format introduced in 2023.
- Beyta is our household-care brand (dishwashing liquid, multi-surface cleaners and laundry bars); it competes at the value end and delivers the highest contribution per line hour.

Brand	Category	FY25 net sales (LCB m)	% of sales	Units FY25 (m)	Category share (vol.)	Positioning
Dunya	Dairy-style desserts and spreads	5,093.6	48.0%	203.9	35.2%	Mainstream and mid-premium; #1 local brand
Zeyla	Biscuits and snacks	3,608.0	34.0%	195.7	18.6%	Mainstream family packs; #3 in category
Beyta	Household care	1,910.1	18.0%	86.8	12.4%	Value tier; #2 local producer
Total		10,611.7	100.0%	486.4

Brand	Premium tier	Mainstream tier	Value tier	Key SKUs
Dunya	18%	61%	21%	48 SKUs; 90g cup, 400g family tub, 1L drink
Zeyla	9%	64%	27%	36 SKUs; 40g wafer, 250g family pack, 12-pack
Beyta	–	38%	62%	22 SKUs; 500ml liquid, 200g bar, 1L refill

Price-tier architecture by brand (share of FY2025 brand volume)

Why the mix matters

Premium and mainstream formats carry a margin on raw materials of 39–43% against 28–31% for value packs. Moving four points of volume out of the value tier between FY2023 and FY2025 explains roughly half of the improvement in our gross margin from 35.5% to 36.2%.

Route-to-market and supply chain

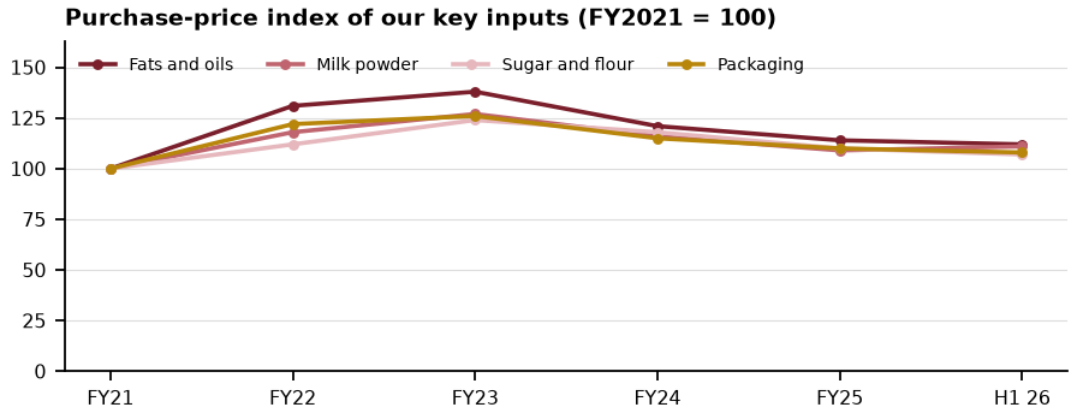

A hybrid model: exclusive distributors for the traditional trade, direct service of modern trade, and a raw-material basket we buy through annual tenders

Route-to-market

Channel	FY2023	FY2025	% of FY25 sales	Coverage
Exclusive distributors (traditional trade)	41	46	53%	12 regions, 6 depots
Wholesalers (secondary)	290	310	14%	served via distributors
Modern trade – key accounts (direct)	4 chains	5 chains	27%	412 stores, direct delivery
Pharmacies and convenience (direct)	1,900	2,650	4%	own van sales, capital region
Export (neighbouring countries)	2	3	2%	importer-distributors
Points of sale reached (estimate)	71,000	84,000		retail audit, urban + rural
Field sales force (own and distributor)	168	212		38 vans; handheld ordering

- Distributors buy from us on 30-day terms and hold 2–3 weeks of stock; we fund a trade-promotion budget of about 5% of net sales, allocated quarterly by region against sell-out targets.
- The direct modern-trade team negotiates annual listing and promotional calendars with the five national chains, whose share of our sales has risen from 21% in FY2023 to 27% in FY2025.
- Since 2024, 88% of orders are captured on handheld devices, giving us weekly sell-out visibility by SKU and outlet class.

Raw-material and packaging exposure

Input	% of FY25 COGS	Sourcing and hedging
Vegetable fats and oils	24%	Imported; 6-month fixed-price contracts with 2 suppliers
Milk powder and whey	18%	Imported; quarterly tenders, 3 qualified suppliers
Sugar and wheat flour	11%	Local mills; annual contracts, price reset half-yearly
Packaging (film, PET, carton)	21%	68% local converters; annual price with quarterly resin index
Surfactants and fragrances	6%	Imported; annual contract
Energy, other materials, labour in COGS	20%	Solar at Plant 2 covers 9% of electricity

Roughly 55% of our cost of raw materials is imported and invoiced in hard currency, which is why the FY2021–FY2023 combination of commodity inflation and LCB depreciation compressed our margin on raw materials to 35.5% in FY2023. Prices have since eased and we now fix the fats and packaging basket six months ahead, which gives us visibility over about half of our cost base.

Market overview

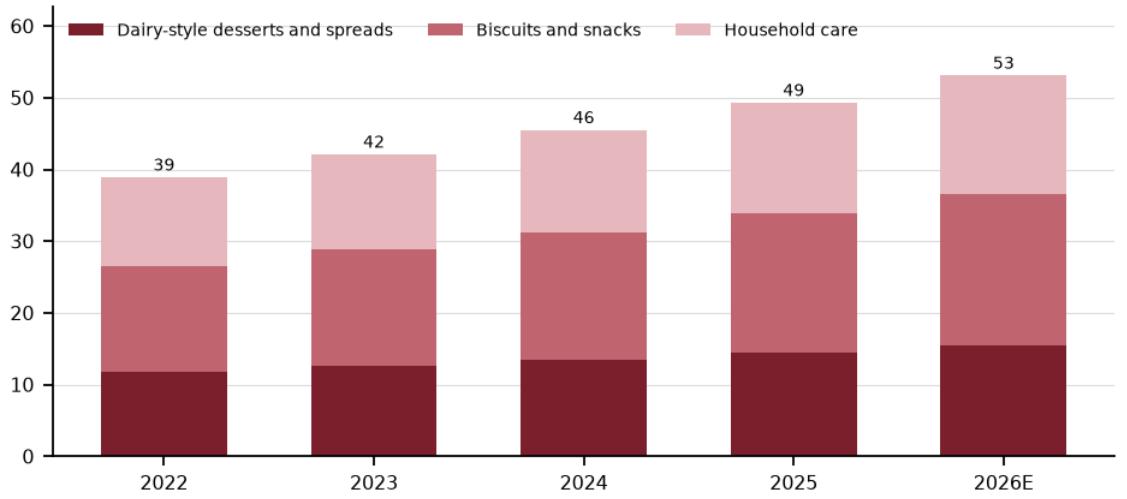

A large and growing packaged-consumer market – drivers and category size

Our three categories represent a combined LCB 49.3bn market growing at c. 8% a year in value

Market drivers

- 1. Demographics – a population of 33.4 million growing at 1.4% a year, with 29% under 15; household formation of about 165,000 a year sustains demand for family packs.
- 2. Distribution – modern trade has grown from 17% to 26% of packaged-food sales since 2020, while the traditional trade remains the largest channel and rewards distributor coverage.
- 3. Infrastructure – the ring motorway and two new logistics platforms cut our average delivery time to distributors from 3.1 to 1.9 days.
- 4. Women's participation – female labour-force participation rose from 34% to 38% between 2019 and 2025, lifting demand for convenience formats.
- 5. Living conditions – electrification and refrigeration penetration above 95% in urban areas support chilled-style and ambient dessert consumption.
- 6. Disposable income – GDP per capita has grown 2.9% a year in real terms since 2021; per-capita consumption of packaged desserts remains a third of mature-market levels.
- 7. Local innovation – consumers and retailers increasingly favour locally made brands; local producers took 6 points of share from imports in biscuits between 2022 and 2025.

Category size in Country B (LCB bn, retail value)

Category	Size 2025 (LCB bn)	Growth 22–25 CAGR	Tallowick share (vol.)	Tallowick rank
Dairy-style desserts and spreads	14.5	7.0%	35.2%	#1
Biscuits and snacks	19.4	9.5%	18.6%	#3
Household care	15.4	7.7%	12.4%	#2 local
Total addressable	49.3	8.2%	21.5% (value)

Category sizes are management estimates built from retail-audit data for the urban modern trade, distributor sell-out for the traditional trade and customs data for imports. Biscuits grow fastest on the shift from imported to locally made brands and on modern-trade listings; desserts and household care track disposable income. 2026E assumes blended value growth of 7.8%.

A large and growing packaged-consumer market – demographics

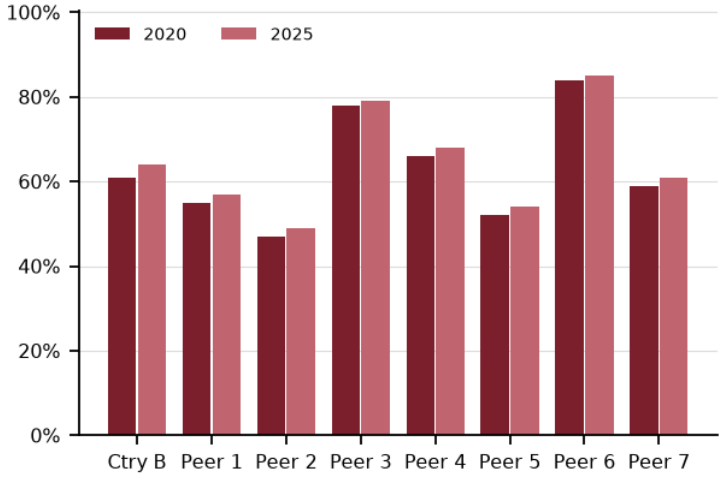

Country B combines one of the larger populations in its region with rising urbanisation and a stable birth rate

Population (millions)

Population growth of 1.4% a year (2020–2025), among the higher rates of the peer group; the national statistics office projects 37 million inhabitants by 2035.

Urbanisation rate (%)

Just under two thirds of the population (64%) now live in cities, where modern trade and pharmacies are concentrated; each point of urbanisation adds an estimated 0.6% to packaged-food volumes.

Births per year (thousands)

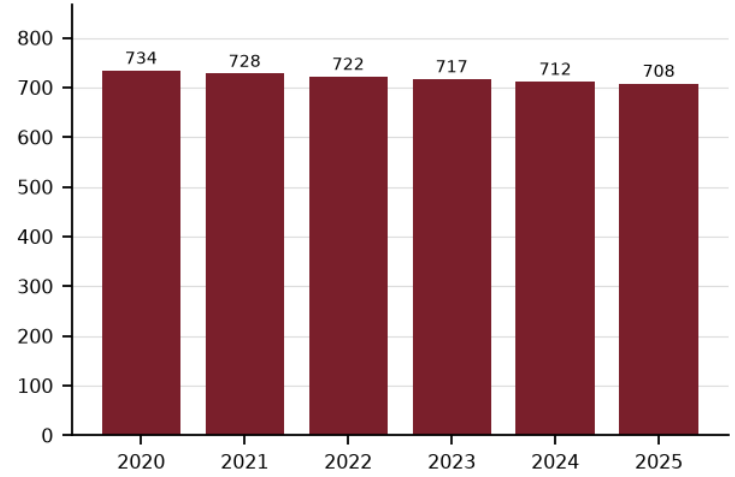

IMAGE REDACTED
Population age pyramid (third-party chart)

About 720,000 births a year on average over 2020–2025 and a fertility rate of 2.5 keep the base of the age pyramid wide; households with children under 12 are our core Dunya and Zeyla consumers.

Competitive landscape

We compete with two multinational importers and two local groups; local production, breadth of portfolio and distribution depth are our edge

Points of sale reached (estimate)	84,000	62,000	38,000	55,000	31,000

Pricing discipline in our categories is set by the two multinational importers, whose shelf prices sit 20–35% above ours in desserts and 10–15% above ours in biscuits. We position Dunya and Zeyla at a fixed discount to those benchmarks and let Competitors C and D fight for the value tier with Beyta and our value packs. Share data are management estimates from retail audits of the urban modern trade and distributor sell-out in the traditional trade.

We are the largest local producer in two of our three categories. Over the period the portfolio moved from value packs towards mainstream and mid-premium formats: value-tier volume fell from 38% of units in FY2021 to 31% in FY2025 while Dunya family tubs and Zeyla Family packs grew. That mix shift, together with the easing of input prices from FY2024, lifted the margin on raw materials from 36.1% in FY2021 to 36.2% in FY2025 and EBITDA from LCB 1,008.9m to LCB 1,449.4m.

Volume mix by tier, FY2025 (FY2021: 15 / 47 / 38)

Reading the table

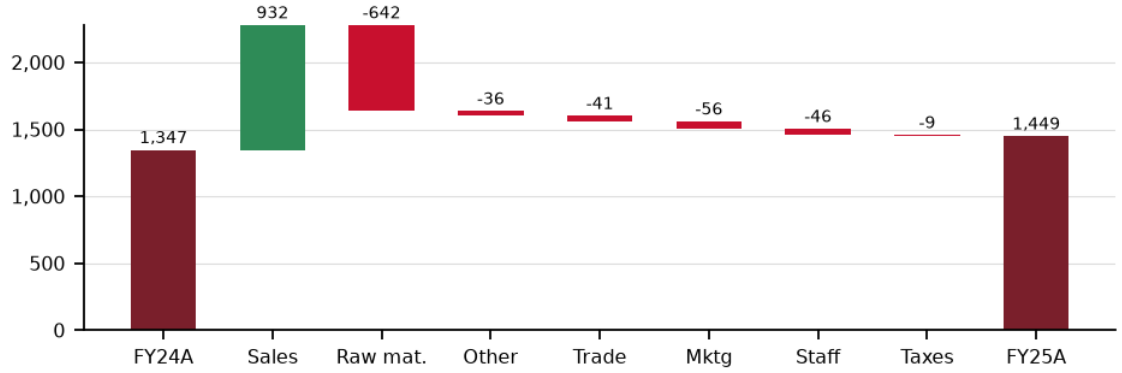

Staff costs stepped up in FY2023 (9.6% of sales) when we rebuilt the field sales force and added a third shift at Plant 2; finance expense fell from LCB 68.0m to LCB 42.0m as we repaid bank debt. The effective tax rate is c. 25%.

EBITDA bridge FY2024A to FY2026B

EBITDA grew LCB 102.6m in FY2025 and is budgeted to grow a further LCB 335.6m in FY2026 as raw-material relief outpaces the marketing step-up

(1) EBITDA FY2024A (13.9% of sales) to FY2025A (13.7%), LCB m

(2) EBITDA FY2025A (13.7% of sales) to FY2026B (15.8%), LCB m

(1) Net sales added LCB 932.1m in FY2025 (+9.6%), entirely volume-led: units grew 9.8% (443.1m to 486.4m) while price/mix was marginally negative (-0.1%), as shelf prices were held and Zeyla Family packs, which carry a lower net price per unit, grew fastest. The FY2026 budget assumes +6.6% (LCB 700.4m): volume of 517.9m units (+6.5%), with the 2% January list-price increase largely offset by Dunya Gold entering at the mainstream price point, leaving price/mix at +0.1%.

(2) Raw materials absorbed LCB 642.4m of the FY2025 sales growth, keeping the margin on raw materials at 36.2%. In FY2026 the fixed-price contracts on fats and packaging, plus the Dunya Gold mix, take the ratio to 61.4% of sales, so the raw-material line grows by only LCB 171.3m on LCB 700.4m of extra sales.

(3) Trade promotion and marketing together rose by LCB 96.6m in FY2025 as the push-and-pull programme was deployed, and are budgeted to rise by a further LCB 71.2m; staff costs grow LCB 76.4m for the 18 additional field sales roles and the Line 8 crew.

Top-of-mind brand awareness (survey, 2025)

A third-party survey of 1,200 urban shoppers (chart redacted) shows our brands under-indexed on unprompted awareness relative to their shelf share: Dunya is the volume leader in its category yet only the third most-cited brand. Our response since 2024 has been the push-and-pull programme: distributor incentives and point-of-sale branding on the push side, and television, digital and in-store sampling on the pull side.

Value-creation levers 2026 and innovation pipeline

Pricing discipline, a funded push strategy and a targeted pull strategy, backed by six launches over the next eighteen months

Lever	Action items
Pricing	Dunya Gold introduced at the mainstream price point to trade consumers up without a price increase; hold Beyta and value-pack shelf prices while a competitor launch is in market, funded by heavier trade promotion in H2 2026; maintain a fixed 22% discount to the multinational benchmark on Dunya and 12% on Zeyla.
Push strategy (c. 5.5% of net sales)	Trade promotion: quarterly regional budgets tied to sell-out; distributor bonus for numeric distribution of the 12 priority SKUs. Distribution network and sales force: 18 additional field representatives, coverage target of 90,000 points of sale by end-2026, handheld ordering for all distributor salesmen, and two new depots. Trade marketing: 3,500 branded shelf units, cooler placement for Dunya drinks in 1,200 outlets, and a merchandising team dedicated to the five national chains.
Pull strategy (c. 3.5% of net sales)	Television and digital campaigns for Dunya Gold and Zeyla Family during the two festive periods; in-store sampling and family events in the premium supermarket segment; a loyalty programme with the largest chain covering 412 stores; and sponsorship of school sports in the capital region.

* Lever budgets are based on the management-accounts mapping of trade promotion and marketing costs, in line with the audited accounts.

Launch pipeline

Launch	Brand	Timing	Status	Rationale
Dunya Gold – 2 new flavours	Dunya	Q3 2026	Approved	Extend the mid-premium range
Zeyla Family – savoury crackers	Zeyla	Q4 2026	Pilot run	Line 8 capacity; snacking occasion
Dunya drink 250ml (on-the-go)	Dunya	Q4 2026	Approved	Convenience and pharmacy channel
Beyta concentrated dish liquid	Beyta	Q1 2027	Development	Trade-up within value tier
Zeyla wafer multipack (12x)	Zeyla	Q2 2027	Development	Modern-trade promotional pack
Beyta mono-material refill pouch	Beyta	Q3 2027	Concept	Recyclability commitment

Innovation is run by a six-person team with a pilot line at Plant 1; each launch passes a stage-gate with a target margin on raw materials of at least 38% and a payback on launch marketing within 18 months. Launches contributed 6.2% of FY2025 net sales (products less than three years old), against 3.1% in FY2022.

Dividends follow the policy of 50% of the prior-year net result.

FY2027F is the organic plan; bolt-on acquisitions under review with our shareholder are excluded. FY2027F finance expense reflects the planned equipment loan. Source: Tallowick budget FY2026 approved by the board in December 2025; management forecast FY2027.
